Mayor's message

Mayor Councillor Tammy Radford was invited to Officer Specialist School to join in with the Drumbeat program, delivered by Council's Youth Services team.

Welcome to the spring edition of Connect Magazine. We hope you enjoy reading about what's happening across the shire and what you can get involved in over the next few months.

From major projects and initiatives, to pets, bandicoots and more, this edition is packed with things to add to your springtime agenda.

You're invited to take part in the Council News survey, which will help shape the way that Council news is delivered. You'll find the survey on page 14, and you can fold it so that page 13 becomes the reply-paid envelope – nifty!

As this is my last Connect Mayor's Message for 2023, I'd like to take a moment to say how honoured I am to have been your Mayor this past year.

Being Council's fourth female Mayor is one of my proudest achievements, and an experience I'll never forget.

One of my personal highlights has been performing citizenship ceremonies, as there is a great sense of pride and warmth in welcoming new residents to our community. Our data shows that an average of 3 families are moving into our community each day, which is very exciting.

I've had a busy year advocating on behalf of the Cardinia Shire community. This has included calling on all levels of government to work together to deliver better public transport, better mental health services, better access to jobs, better safer roads, better sport and recreation facilities, better community places and services, better outdoor spaces and better protection for our environment.

This year also allowed me the opportunity to visit both the Victorian and Australian Parliament, where I was able to meet with many of our local Members of Parliament and Ministers to discuss some of the key issues and opportunities for our community.

I have also loved connecting with our young people at meaningful events, such as the Drumbeat program at Officer Specialist School (pictured above) which is delivered by Council's Youth Services team. The team is committed to ensuring that young people with disability are engaged and included in Council's programs. You can visit Council's website for more information about the programs that Youth Services offer.

It's been a pleasure, Cardinia Shire, and I look forward to supporting you all as best I can next year and into the future.

Thank you for a wonderful year.

Cr Tammy Radford

MyCardinia is live!

Toomuc Ward Councillor Stephanie Davies hopes that the new MyCardinia program will benefit all residents, and save people time.

Introducing a new way for residents to transact online with Council – MyCardinia!

Recently launched, the MyCardinia portal allows you to create a unique login then sign in to do a range of tasks online – whenever it suits you.

Toomuc Ward Councillor Stephanie Davies says the MyCardinia portal gives residents a quick and easy way to interact with Council.

“The MyCardinia portal is designed to make it easy and secure for our residents to make some of their most frequent Council payments and applications online, as well as track the status of their requests,” Cr Davies said.

“We know how full peoples’ lives are and we hope this great new portal allows them to ‘do business’ with Council at a time and place that works for them – whether it’s on the train on the way to work or sitting on the couch at home!”

Some of the tasks you can do online using MyCardinia include:

- registering your pets and paying registration renewal fees
- reporting an issue or requesting services, then tracking the progress of your request
- making rates payments and verifying your properties
- registering your pool
- submitting a report and consent application for siting variation and flooding
- paying a fine.

"Whether you check in with those you care about, take a short daily walk to boost your mood, attend a library event, or challenge yourself to the Cardinia Fun Run and Walk – the smallest step can have a hugely positive impact on your mental health and the mental health of those around you," Cr Ryan said.

Recognised all across Australia, Mental Health Month is marked annually every October.

Beacon Hills Ward Councillor Brett Owen was invited to meet Leanne at Beaconsfield Community Complex, which will soon utilise the angled roof to harvest rainwater for use at the centre.

Creating a more sustainable shire

Three much-loved community facilities have been given new sustainability upgrades!

The Beaconsfield Community Complex, Bunyip Hall and Koo Wee Rup Community Centre each received sustainability upgrades which will help reduce energy and water costs.

Thanks to a Council Community Capital Works grant, two 10 kilowatt solar energy systems have been installed at Bunyip Hall and Koo Wee Rup Community Centre, which are estimated to reduce energy costs for each building by $2,000 per year.

The Beaconsfield Community Complex has received a new rainwater harvesting system, which will enable rainwater to be used for irrigation and toilet flushing.

During construction, Beacon Hills Ward Councillor Brett Owen was invited to check out the progress of the rainwater harvesting system at the complex.

“By 2024 our goal is to achieve net zero Council emissions, and each sustainability upgrade that we make is helping us to meet that target.”

Keep up to date with Council’s journey as we focus on delivering a more sustainable future for the community.

‘Majorly’ exciting upgrades

This project was jointly funded by Council and the Victorian Government’s 2021-22 Local Sports Facilities Fund – Community Facilities.

Delivering for local families

Mayor Tammy Radford (right) officially opened the new kinder in Officer, alongside Minister for Early Childhood and Pre-Prep Ingrid Stitt MLC (centre) and Member for Pakenham Emma Vulin MP (left).

Kurmboon Child and Family Centre is now open and delivering high quality kindergarten services to 3-and-4-year-old children and their families!

Located in Officer, the centre features 2 kindergarten program rooms, a community room, 3 consulting rooms, a public art piece, and more.

Mayor Councillor Tammy Radford recently opened the new centre with Minister for Early Childhood and Pre-Prep Ingrid Stitt MLC, along with Member for Pakenham Emma Vulin MP.

"Kurmboon Child and Family Centre offers state-of-the-art spaces for the local community to access the early years and family services they need," Mayor Radford said.

"Our data shows that an average of 3 families are moving into our community each day, so we need to keep advocating for more funding for critical infrastructure and family services to support our residents."

This project was funded by the Victorian Government's Children's Facilities Capital Program Major Grants and Council via developer contributions.

Funding has also been announced for construction of a new integrated child and family centre – with an interim name of Thewlis Road Integrated Child and Family Centre – to be built in north west Pakenham to meet the needs of families in Cardinia Shire's growth corridor.

Banding together for bandicoots

Westernport Ward Councillor Kaye Cameron catches up with school principal Mr Zimmerle, and the team of Eco-Leaders at Koo Wee Rup Primary School to check out the newly-planted bandicoot garden.

Thanks to passionate young environmentalists at Koo Wee Rup Primary School, we're one step closer to safeguarding the future of the endangered Southern Brown Bandicoot!

Since 2020, 500 indigenous plants have been planted on the schoolgrounds which now form a special habitat for local bandicoots.

Students undertook the plantings with the assistance of Westernport Biosphere Foundation and the Cranbourne Botanical Gardens, and funding from Council.

Throughout the journey, Koo Wee Rup Primary School students learned about conservation and the importance of looking out for endangered animals.

Westernport Ward Councillor Kaye Cameron loved the opportunity to be taken on a tour of the new bandicoot garden.

"Koo Wee Rup Primary School have done a fantastic job in creating this bandicoot haven. They should be very proud of their excellent efforts," Cr Cameron said.

"The school have also generously allowed Council to set up future timelapse cameras to try and capture footage of the bandicoots as they begin to explore the space – we can't wait to see them!"

Make sure you're following us on social media for future bandicoot updates.

www.facebook.com/cardiniaashirecouncil

Protecting our nosey neighbours

Watch out, there could be a bandicoot about! Here are some tips that you can try to create a safe environment for any Southern Brown Bandicoots that might visit your neighbourhood.

- Keep your cat inside and your dog on a leash. This not only helps protect bandicoots, but also other animals and people - as well as your pet.

- Plant low, dense native plants on your property. Mat-rushes, tussock-grasses, and grass-trees provide good nest spots for bandicoots.
- Tell us where you see them! Log a sighting on the iNaturalist app.

Learn more about what we can do to protect our curious friends on our website.

www.cardinia.vic.gov.au/bandicoot

Hotel for bandicoots

Do you want to contribute to local wildlife conservation? Why not try your hand at making a bandicoot shelter!

Having somewhere to hide is very important for bandicoots – they need places to sleep, raise young, and stay hidden if predators like cats and foxes are around.

Want a small challenge? Sections of terracotta pipe can be quite popular with bandicoots as a spot to snooze.

Want a medium challenge? You can plant a bandicoot garden. Bandicoots like to nest under big strappy plants, so grasses and low-growing grass trees are great.

Want a big challenge? You could build a bandicoot hide. Visit our website and check out the building instructions.

Love your pet, protect your pet!

Bunyip Ward Councillor Graeme Moore took a trip to Garfield Recreation Reserve to meet up with Jen, a member of Council's Regulatory Services team, to learn more about how to better keep our pets safe.

With thousands of dogs registered in Cardinia Shire, there's lots of love for our canine companions – but are you doing everything possible to keep your pets safe?

Bunyip Ward Councillor Graeme Moore and his dog, Lucy, met up with Jen from Council's Regulatory Services team and her pooches to brush-up on tips to help keep pets safe.

"I'm a proud pet-parent, and keeping my dog safe both at home and on walks is very important," said Cr Moore.

"Keeping pets under control protects the whole community – our pets, our environment, and each other."

Please report any issues with dogs to Council, including; a dog attack, excessive barking, dogs wandering, or issues with dangerous or restricted breed dogs.

For more information, including locations of off-leash areas and how to report a nuisance dog, visit our website.

 www.cardinia.vic.gov.au/dogs

Here are 4 things to keep in mind if you have a dog at home:

- All dogs must be kept contained to their owner's property in Cardinia Shire. This means your yard must be enclosed with a fence high enough that your dog can't jump over or get through
- Dogs must be kept on a leash when in a public place, except if in a designated off-leash dog area
- If your dog wanders off from your property, you may be given an official warning or a fine. If we're unable to reconnect you, wandering dogs may be taken to the pound
- If your dog rushes at or chases someone, you could be fined or taken to court, and we may have to declare your dog to be a 'menacing dog', meaning your pet may need to be muzzled when out in public.

Keeping your kitties happy

Thanks to everyone who sent in their pawsome cat pics – we loved seeing so many safe and happy kitties in Cardinia Shire. Let us introduce you to a few of our new feline friends.

Cats in Cardinia Shire must be contained to their owner's property at all times; this helps to protect native wildlife and keep your fur babies safe.

Want some ideas for helping to keep your cat indoors or on your property? Head to our website.

Brothers Bingo and Bongo (below) love spending their day sleeping, playing and peeping at the birds from their cat tree. Owners Arabella and Ophelia say that the boys are very demanding of cuddle time!

Pansy, Presley and Penny (right) are very lucky to have their own 3-storey catio! Owner Viktoria says her cats can come and go as they please through the kitty flap, and can safely watch the birds from the catio.

Central Ward Councillor Collin Ross is getting prepared early and has started organising some textiles for the drop-off event.

Textiles drop-off event

Do you have old textiles and fabrics such as clothes, bed linen and tablecloths that aren't in good enough condition to donate? Then give them a second life at our free drop-off event this spring!

Residents can drop off any unwanted textiles that would otherwise end up in landfill.

Central Ward Councillor and passionate waste advocate, Cr Collin Ross, encourages all residents to consider making use of the event.

"The drop-off event is a convenient way for residents to have a good clear-out of any unwanted textiles, and help avoid more waste heading to landfill," Cr Ross said.

"This service isn't offered in many places, so I would encourage residents to head down to the event with their pre-loved textiles."

All textiles including clothing and household linen that are too damaged for donation will be accepted for specialised fibre-to-fabric recycling.

To register for the event and for more information about Council's waste drop-off events, head to our website.

Ready Get Go: are you prepared for an emergency?

Emergencies can come in many forms, such as bushfires and floods, and often happen when we least expect them. The better prepared we are before an emergency can help us to bounce back after.

When an emergency occurs, it can be hard to stay calm and remember the things that you need, so we've developed Ready Get Go bags along with emergency preparedness kits specially designed to help you prepare for emergencies before they happen.

The bags are lightweight and easy to use, and full of helpful resources, including an Emergency Plan template and a checklist of things you might need if you have to leave your home in a hurry during an emergency.

Developing your own emergency plan can help prepare and protect you, your family and your pets in emergency situations.

Council is proud to have worked with Officer Specialist School in putting together Ready Get Go bags with additional resources for vulnerable members of our community.

This project was partly funded by the Victorian Government Vulnerable Persons Grant.

Request your own Ready Get Go bag emergency preparedness kit by emailing mail@cardinia.vic.gov.au

Head to Council's website to learn more about how to prepare for an emergency, including preparation advice for fires and floods, and electronic copies of resources found within the Ready Get Go Bags.

Thank you, Tonimbuk Hall!

We wanted to say a huge thank you to the Tonimbuk Hall Committee who have kept the hall as the heart of the community following the 2019 bushfires.

From making wicking beds to building an outdoor pizza oven, the Tonimbuk Hall Committee is doing wonderful work to make our community stronger and more resilient.

Council was delighted to be able to provide the Tonimbuk Hall Committee with recovery support for activation and upgrades following the 2019 bushfires so that the hall could continue to function as an important community space.

This support included funding for new kitchen upgrades, which the committee regularly makes use of when bringing the community together to share good company and delicious meals.

To find out about events and programs running at Tonimbuk Hall or to hire out the space, email tonimbukhall@gmail.com
